Accurate disclosure is essential to monitor whether officials have conflicts of interest and to help ensure public trust in government. The biennial review examines current programs to ensure that the agency's code requires disclosure by agency officials who make or participate in making governmental decisions.

This agency has reviewed its conflict-of-interest code and has determined that (Check one box):

- An amendment is required. The following amendments are necessary:
(Mark all that apply.)
- Include new positions.
 - Revise disclosure categories.
 - Revise the titles of existing positions.
 - Delete titles of positions that have been abolished and/or positions that no longer make or participate in making governmental decisions.
 - Other (describe) _____
- No amendment is required.
- The code is currently under review by the code reviewing body.

Verification

The agency's code accurately designates all positions that make or participate in the making of governmental decisions; the disclosure categories assigned to those positions accurately require the disclosure of all investments, business positions, interests in real property, and sources of income that may foreseeably be affected materially by the decisions made by those holding the designated positions; and the code includes all other provisions required by Government Code Section 87302.
